Text:

Wynter wakeneth al my care
Nou this leves waxeth bare.
Ofte I sike ant mourne sare
When hit cometh in my thoht
Of this worldes joie hou hit goth al to noht.

Nou hit is and nou hit nys
Al so hit ner nere ywys.
That moni mon seith soth hit ys.
Al goth bote Godes Wille.
Alle we shule deye thah us like ylle.

Al that gren me graueth grene
Nou hit faleweth albeydene.
Jesu help that hit be sene
Ant shild us from helle.
For y not whider y shal ne hou longe her duelle.

Wynter wakeneth al my care
Nou this leves waxeth bare.
Ofte I sike ant mourne sare
When hit cometh in my thoht
Of this worldes joie hou hit goth al to noht.

Notes:

There are many phrases that end with a short vowel (like "al my care"). The final syllable is almost un-voiced.

In some places (e.g. bars 52, 55, 57) vocalists are required to transition from the start of a syllable to a hum. This should be as smooth and as discreet as possible. The other singers may help cover these transitions, so that ideally, they are not audible.

Tempi are flexible throughout.

The piece may be (ideally) performed with amplification and subtle reverberation, but it may be performed a capella, with no reinforcement.
